The logo is symbol that reflects rebuilding of Nepal tourism. The following thoughts have gone towards creating this design.

1. Dhaharara has been a symbol of destruction due to the EQ and this logo demonstrates the rebuilding of Dhaharara to symbolize that Nepal has recovered back to its glorious days. The use of the Dhaharara is more tuned for the Nepalese audience as this symbol stirs up many emotions and will be extremely motivational for the local audience. We must remember that the Dhaharara was a tower built to defend the valley against invaders so it has always stood strong and steadfast in history as a symbol of strength.

2. The logo also have people (reflection of tourists with cameras) visiting the site and looking at the structure in admiration.

3. The triangle is the symbolic representation of the world famous Himalayan mountains for which Nepal is internationally recognized for.

4. The rising Sun behind the triangle symbolizes a new dawn and a new beginning.

5. The use of the gold color is to symbolize the golden future in tourism and also symbolizes prosperity.

Domestic airline operators have decided to cut the airfare by adjusting the fuel surcharge in line with the decline in the price of aviation fuel. Airlines Operators Association of Nepal (AOAN), today, took a decision to slash fuel surcharge by Rs 168.75 to Rs 581.50, depending on the destination.

The association has stated that the revised fuel surcharge will come into effect from August 7 (Friday). Nepal Oil Corporation (NOC), on August 2, had cut the aviation fuel price by Rs 15 per litre to Rs 118 a litre.

AOAN for long had been demanding that government reduce aviation fuel price.

As per the airfare fixation criteria, airline operators are supposed to revise airfare whenever there is a change in aviation fuel price by more than eight per cent. The recent change in the pricing has made aviation fuel cheaper by around 12 per cent. "We have decided to cut fuel surcharge in all destinations immediately after the change in aviation fuel charge," said Dhana Raj Acharya, spokesperson for AOAN.

Acharya said that based on the new fuel price, fuel surcharge has come down by Rs 168.75 in Kathmandu-Simara sector, the shortest domestic air route. There is a decline in surcharge by Rs 581.50 in longest route of Kathmandu-Dhangadhi, while Rs 562.5 has been cut in fuel surcharge in mountain flights.

The fuel surcharge for Kathmandu-Pokhara and Kathmandu-Biratnagar sectors have come down by Rs 253.12 and Rs 346.87, respectively. Similarly, in the remote sector, fuel surcharge has been cut by Rs 205.2 in Kathmandu-Lukla and Rs 119.7 in Pokhara-Jomsom sector.

It had been NATTA's long-standing demand as well regarding cut of Fuel Surcharge.
